HKJMA representatives will select the booth locations on behalf of the exhibitors according to their preferences, but the final booth location is subject to availability. Booth Allotment Policy

1. Exhibitors who has larger exhibition space will have priority to choose the booth location over exhibitor who has smaller exhibition size.
2. If two or more exhibitors applied for the same size of exhibition space, exhibitors who applied for more corners will have priority to choose the booth location over exhibitor who applied for fewer corners.
3. Should companies have the same booth size and number of corners, the priority of booth selection is decided by a point system.

 - Points will also be counted for each continuous participation of JMA Hong Kong in last 5 years (i.e., 2020, 2021, 2022, 2023 & 2024) and the maximum is 5 points. All discontinuous records will not be considered.
5. Companies with more points will have priority to choose the booth location over companies with fewer points.
6. If two or more exhibitors have the same number of points, then the priority will be drawn by a computer program. Exhibitors will choose the booth location according to this sequence.
